

DECLARATION OF IMMIGRATION STATUS

You should be aware that if you do not have appropriate immigration status, or the relevant visa for a marriage in the United Kingdom, your proposed marriage/civil partnership will be referred to the Home Office for investigation.
When lodging notice of your intention to marry/form a civil partnership in Scotland, you must provide the registrar with information regarding your immigration status in the United Kingdom, and evidence to support that information. The registrar will be unable to accept your form M10 or CP10 unless this declaration form is properly completed and submitted with the appropriate evidence.
